Special interest projects

Below is a list of the special interest projects supported by the Didier and Martine Primat Foundation:

- Porte-Bonheur: a not-for-profit organisation that supports orphans from Switzerland.
- Refuge de Darwyn: a Swiss organisation that works to protect mistreated horses and donkeys by rescuing them and giving them the care they need to recover.
- Pierre Rabhi Endowment Fund: financial aid to help spread Pierre Rabhi's ideas from across his body of work, and contribute to promoting and developing agroecology worldwide.
- “Study of the biodiversity of French soil and its development, 1990 to 2017”: a research project led by the Mathematical Institute of the University of Burgundy in collaboration with Claude and Lydia Bourguignon (2018-2020).
